$1.00 Per Year

LARGER SUBSIDY FOR THE ISLANDS

DELEGATES FROM ISLANDS ATTEND
MEETING OF VICTORIA BOARD OF TRADE YESTERDAY

Provided that the service is satisfactory, a subsidy of $17,500 a year is not too much for the Government to give the party who will carry mails, freight and passengers to the Gulf Islands, according to the conclusion reached at a meeting of the Victoria Board of Trade rooms yesterday. A resolution setting forth that sentiment was passed, and copies will be given members of the Provincial and Dominion Parliaments who are interested in the matter so as to strengthen their hands when asking the grant from their respective Governments.

Messrs. G. H. Barnard, M.P.; H. F. Shepherd, M.P., and M. B. Jackson, M.P. for the Islands, were present at the meeting, and the following represented the Gulf Island settlers: Messrs. W. H. Dawes, secretary of the Sidney Board of Trade; R. W. Mayhew, of Sidney; William Mouat, George Dean, W. H. Tripp, T. Charles Lang and Norman W. Wilson, of Ganges. Mr. C. H. Lugin president of the Victoria Board of Trade, was in the chair, and several members of the council attended, in addition to Mr. T. W. Paterson, chairman of the committee on trade, commerce and transportation.

Mr. Jackson outlined the situation stating that while the ill-fated Iroquois had been able to operate a schedule for $4,500 annual subsidy, and the C. P. R. was now accepting $7,500, conditions now made necessary the increase of the subsidy so as to make a total of $17,500. The meeting was convinced after considerable discussion that Mr. Jackson's contention was justified. The hope was expressed that the Provincial Government would give its share towards the annual subsidy.

Further information on the question will be sought by the Victoria Board of Trade in an effort to give further support to Mr. Jackson and the Federal members.

ENTERTAINMENT AT RESTHAVEN.

Another of those popular entertainments will be held at Resthaven Military Hospital on Tuesday, March 20th, at 8 o'clock, to which the people of Sidney and district are cordially invited, and with the invitation is coupled the request that the visiting ladies supply the refreshments for the evening.

This entertainment, which will be held under the direction of Mrs. J. S. Harvey and Captain Craddock, of Victoria, will be put on in two parts, the first of which will consist of vaudeville acts in which the following will take part: The Misses Bockwell, Little, Montgambert, Fraser, Taylor and others.

The second part will consist of musical selections and the following artists have kindly consented to appear: Mrs. Broome, Mrs. Baird, Mrs. McLaren, Mrs. Pearson, Mr. Horrocks, Mr. Brown and others will assist.

A real good time is assured all who attend, and if the weather conditions are favorable a large crowd will be sure to be in attendance from Sidney.

SALT SPRING ISLAND.

The annual general meeting of the Ganges Water Company was held at the Trading Company's office on Thursday last, when the financial report was read and a dividend declared, and paid, and last year's committee reelected.

This company was formed in 1914 with a capital of $50,000, of which about half has been issued. The water is supplied from two sources, one from local springs situated about half a mile from Ganges at an elevation of 350 feet above the sea. This serves for approximately six months of the year, but the main source is Maxwell Lake, 1,050 feet above the sea, about four miles from Ganges, and possessing water of exceptional purity, as certified by Government analysts. The whole distribution is by gravitation. Between the lake and the service tank there is a difference of level of nearly 700 feet, which is got over by means of four break pressure chambers.

Ganges therefore is supplied with as good supply of water as any place in B. C., and the quantity is unlimited. Hydrants are placed at certain points for protection against fire, and there are facilities at the wharf for supplying at the usual rate, steamers of all sizes.

On Saturday, St. Patrick's Day, the Ganges Chapter of the I. O. D. E. is holding a tag day, to raise funds for wool as the supply is low, and socks are badly needed at the front.

ROYAL LADY DIED AT LONDON HOME

London, March 14.—The death of mer Royal Highness the Duchess of Connaught was announced to-day.

During the last few days the relatives and friends of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught were aware that the case of the Duchess was hopeless. In the latter stages of her illness oxygen was freely administered.

It is thought that the complication of broncho-pneumonia would probably have been successfully overcome but for the drain on the patient's health caused by an operation in London in 1913.

As late as this afternoon the Duchess was conscious and able to recognize the members of her family who were gathered at her bedside.

H. R. H. the Duchess of Connaught was before her marriage Princess Louise Margaret, daughter of Prince Charles of Prussia, the "Red Prince" of the Franco Prussian War. She was born in 1860, and her marriage took place on March 13, 1879. Her residence in this country will long remain a pleasant memory for Canadians, in whom the royal lady took a most kindly interest.

AN INTERESTING MAP.

A new map has just been issued by the Railway Lands Branch, Department of the Interior, Ottawa, which will no doubt be hailed with pleasure by the mercantile and professional community. It is entitled the Judicial District Map. The merchant, farmer or other citizen of the West, as well as the wholesaler of the East, has oftentimes noted the paucity of information with regard to the exact location of the points at which sittings of the courts are held, or at which title deeds or other important documents of a similar nature, may be registered. This data is of obvious benefit and importance to all those having matters of a litigious nature in hand. The new publication shows, by an elaborate, but not complicated, color scheme the location of both land registration and judicial districts, in the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. Certain towns containing both the court house and registry office are indicated on the map by a circle of one color, while those containing one, but not both of these conveniences, are shown by a circle of a distinctive nature. Where the County Court, as distinguished from the Supreme or Court of King's Bench, sits, this too is indicated. Those places which are the centres of land titles or land registration districts, are shown on the map by boundary lines of different colors.

Application to the Superintendent of Railway Lands Branch, Department of the Interior, Ottawa, will secure a copy of this useful map gratis.

GOOD COWS PLUS 50 PER CENT.

The man familiar with cows may make a fairly close estimate of what any one in a given herd will give, possibly per day, per month or per year. Does it follow she is the "best" cow? It depends somewhat on what the owner is after. He may look for a large flow of milk, he may require plenty of cream, or, wisely, he may expect a substantial profit above the cost of feed. So your cows, as a herd, may average 6,000 lbs of milk and 200 lbs. of fat, but is each one earning a good profit? Cow testing checking up each individual, will answer this and many other questions. It will also help, as it has helped many dairymen, to add at least fifty per cent to their income from the same number of cows, because they keep those that are known to be efficient. Your average may be 7,000 pounds, but in three years perhaps you can make it over 10,000 pounds, but it won't be unless each one is up to a good standard. Write the Dairy Commissioner, Ottawa, for milk record forms. Your letter does not need a postage stamp.

A BELATED DELIVERY.

A burglar had just begun his term of imprisonment. Near him was an oldish man who studied him intently and seemed to be waiting an opportunity to say something. It came while the warder was at the water tank. "How long are you in for?" "Twelve years," replied the newcomer. The veteran looked round nervously and thrust a letter into the burglar's hand. "I'm in for life," he said; "post this letter for me when you get out."

SUPERFLUITIES WANTS DONATIONS

PEOPLE OF SIDNEY ARE ASKED TO CONTRIBUTE TO WORTHY CAUSE.

It is unnecessary to comment on the following letter as we are quite satisfied that the people of this district will respond most generously to the appeal being made:

Dear Mr. Tester,—You very kindly said that you might be able to collect some "Superfluities" for us in the district of North Saanich for us. We are literally praying for stock now and have any number of customers but very little to sell them. If you could collect anything for us, we would, indeed, be very grateful. Yours truly.

FRANCIS FITZ-GIBBON,
Honorary Secretary

Victoria, March 5th, 1917.

In the hunt for superfluities the store at Victoria have sent out the following S.O.S. call.

"Superfluities Out of Stock." "Send Out Supplies." "Stack Our Shelves." "Succour Our Society." "Solace Our Saleswomen, Saddened O'er Scarcity of Superfluities."

FACTS ABOUT CANADA.

The public will welcome the new issue for 1917 of "Five Thousand Facts About Canada," the popular and valuable cyclopedia of Canadian dates, compiled by Frank Yeigh, of Toronto, the well known writer and lecturer on the Dominion. No up-to-date and intelligent Canadian can afford to be without this "hardy annual," which is a revelation in concrete form of the wonderful growth of our country in a single year, despite war conditions: indeed, it circulates all over the world, and as such is a splendid advertisement. The chapter of "War Facts" is, by the way, both timely and illuminating. Fifty other chapters are devoted alphabetically to every phase of our national life, from Agriculture to the Yukon, while several sketch maps are of high value. Copies may be had from news dealers or by sending 25 cents to the Canadian Facts Publishing Co., 588 Huron Street, Toronto Canada.

THE CHANGE AT RESTHAVEN.

To the Editor, Sidney Review.

Dear Sir,—It has come to our notice that there is an opinion going round conveying the impression that our action in leaving the Military Convalescent Hospital, Resthaven, in a body was strange and uncalled for, and in order to correct this misinterpretation that is being placed upon our action, we desire space in your valuable paper to make the following statement:

Miss McDonald, our matron in charge, whose work and record is well known to the public, was doing a noble work in trying to make a home for those boys who have suffered so much, and many of whom are suffering still, and need all the care and interest that can be given them. Owing to so much hindrance in connection with her work as matron she found it impossible to remain, in justice to herself and the patients under her care, hence she resigned her position.

We, knowing these things, and also being informed that the one who was to take her place was mixed up in this disagreeable affair, decided to make a protest against such treatment. We asked to be allowed to lay the matter before the Officer Commanding "J" Unit, but our request was refused. We then decided there was no way open to us but to resign our positions, but we did not leave our work until others were there to take charge of our duties.

We believe that the whole trouble arises from what we believe to be a dual control in the management, viz: Civilian and Military, and that patronage and political influence enters too much into this work to enable the ones in charge to do their best for those who have endured so much for the Empire and are worthy of the best that can be done for them.

We were sorry for the disorder and riotous conduct of the men, as a protest against what they believed to be unfair treatment accorded to us and did our best to keep them from making any trouble, as we were anxious for their welfare and did not wish them to suffer in any way for misconduct.

We regret that we have been forced to make this statement to the paper, but having the welfare of "our boys" at heart, in justice to those who are still fighting and those we have cared for, in the hands of the public to judge for we take this stand and leave the matter themselves.

CORRECTS MISUNDERSTANDING

To the Editor, Sidney Review.

Dear Sir,—As we understand there has been some doubt in the public mind as to the continuance of our work, we should be greatly obliged if you would publish the following official facts:

The American members of the Commission for Relief in Belgium have been asked by the Germans to remain at their posts, and the work in Belgium is therefore proceeding under exactly the same guarantees as heretofore.

The fact that the Commission for Relief in Belgium continues to receive large sums from the Allied Government is in itself enough to prove that they, who are most interested, have no reason to believe that the Germans are directly benefitting. Furthermore, the Commission have effected an arrangement with the British Government on one side and the German Government on the other by which an acceptable lane for Belgian relief ships between North American ports and Rotterdam has been fixed so as to ensure the continuity of the supplies.

The Commission for Relief in Belgium is facing to-day a monthly deficit of $3,000,000. Hence it is more than ever in need of the full hearted support of the public.

Thanking you in anticipation, we remain, yours truly,

A. M. AUSTIN,
Hon. Secy.-Treasurer.

PRAISES WORTH OF CARIBOO BOY

The following letter, which was recently published in the Sherburne County Star, of Elk River, Minn., will be of interest to many Sidney people. It was written by Major Harbottle, of the 67th Western Scotts, to Mrs. W. P. Brennan, mother of Pte. "Pete" Brennan, who, while on a visit to his brother in Sidney, Mr. J. R. Brennan, went to Victoria and joined the 67th. He came here from the Cariboo Country where he had lived for several years in order to do his bit for his adopted country.

"Dear Mrs. Brennan,—I think it is my duty as well as a pleasure to write you and let you know how your son Pete is getting along in this battalion. I have taken a fancy to his clean cut manly appearance ever since he enlisted with us in far off Victoria. In a battalion of one thousand men it is only natural that there are many very sterling characters among the rank and file and they are bound to assert themselves and crop up on top sooner or later. This your son has done, and I assure you that now he is a very valuable member of this splendid regiment. His knowledge of horses, and his natural influence over men much older than himself has made a place for him in our transport section and it is largely due to his efforts that our Regimental Transport is considered the best in the whole division. His untiring efforts in the face of the most trying conditions has been a splendid example to the men under him, and he has endeared himself to all officers and men alike for his kindly nature and cheerfulness. We are in about the very worst part of the whole battle line and have lost so many splendid men that it makes my heart ache for the poor fellows as they march out each night well knowing that some will be left behind as they return. The war has assumed tremendous proportions and we do not look for its termination for another year or more, but we are getting much stronger whereas "Fritz" must weaken. "It is my intention, so far as lies in my power, to see that Pete becomes a commissioned officer before very long. His gentlemanly instincts and bearing fully qualify him for it and I know he will be a credit to his rank. At the present time I have not the whole say, but I have got some influence even now and shall use it in this endeavor. I hope to have the pleasure of seeing more of Pete when the old war is over if we are both lucky enough to get through, and will try to prevail upon him to allow me to express myself to you personally. In the meantime, the object of this letter is to convince you that you have a son to be proud of and if he should be called upon to forfeit his life with the rest of us you will have the conscious pride that he had done his duty nobly and well. With kind regards to you and your family. Very sincerely,

COLIN HARBOTTLE, Major

PREPARING POULTRY PRODUCE FOR MARKET.

The householder who buys a poorly nourished and careless marketed chicken or fowl secures a very inferior article of food, whereas the purchaser of a well finished and properly prepared crate fed bird, obtains a luxury. There is a corresponding difference between grades of eggs that are offered at many stores. To enlighten poultry keepers in the method of preparing both poultry and eggs for market, the Dominion Department of Agriculture has issued an excellent bulletin. It is written by Mr. F. C. Elford, Dominion Poultry Husbandman and issued as Bulletin No. 88 of the Experimental Farms. It treats the Preparing Poultry Produce for Market, Systems of Marketing, Packages, Marketing, Crate Feeding, Killing, Plucking, Cooling and Packing.

The Bulletin is helpfully illustrated in showing the proper and improper methods of packing poultry as well as of modern egg cases, crates and other features connected with the industry.

The frontispiece, printed in colors, represents the roof of a bird's mouth, showing precisely where to sever the artery to bleed and where to penetrate the roof of the mouth to strike the brain causing immediate insensibility and easy plucking.

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

FOR SALE—No. 1 Seed Potatoes, $45 per ton. Apply Charlie Wing, opposite Sidney Public School, Fifth St.

A beautiful selection of St. Patrick Day, Easter, birthday and comic post cards and booklets from 2 for 5 cents to 40 cents each are now on sale at Fralick's Bookstore on Fourth Street. Call and see them.

Mr. A. L. Wilson is now well established as head clerk in the hardware department of the Sidney Trading Co., Limited, and assures the Review representative that everything required in this line will in future be found in his up-to-date stock. If he has not got it on hand it will be a very simple matter for Mr. Wilson to get it for his customers in the course of a day or two.

Mr. F. E. Lesage, proprietor of the Sidney Drug Store, wishes to inform his many customers and friends that it is his intention to move his drug store from its present location in the Berquist Block to the store formerly occupied as a restaurant on the corner of Third Street and Beacon Avenue, directly opposite the Merchants Bank. He will be in his new premises on and after March 24th and will be pleased to have his many friends call upon him there. The new store has been in the hands of the carpenters and decorators for the past two weeks with the result that it thoroughly renovated and will make an ideal location for Mr. Lesage's drug store.

Have you seen that piece of fancy work now on exhibition in the window of Mr. S. Roberts' office? Have you stopped to look at it, or did you know that it was entirely executed by a returned wounded soldier? There is not a flaw in it and the color blending is certainly wonderfully done. This piece of fancy work was made by a man who learned the art of silk embroidery while lying in a hospital in England, and when one stops to consider that the artist was a miner and followed this occupation in one of the British Columbia mines before joining the forces, it seems all the more wonderful, as one can hardly realize that such dainty and artistic work could possibly be done by the hands of a man. However, there it is, and the best part of it is it is going to be drawn for and everyone will have an equal chance of procuring it. Tickets for this raffle will shortly be offered for sale at the Review Office Mr. S. Roberts' office and other places in town. The price of these tickets will be 25 cents.

NATIONAL SERVICE LITERATURE.

One of the most valuable of recent literary contributions to the great cause is a booklet by Professor Stephen Leacock, entitled "National Organization for War." In this booklet, Dr. Leacock makes an urgent call for national thrift and national saving. He attacks in vigorous style the evils of extravagance at this crisis in Canada's history, and by trenchant phrase and apt illustration disposes of various common errors in regard to individual spending of money during war time.

This pamphlet was originally published by Dr. Leacock himself, but the National Service Board were so convinced of its value in connection with their thrift campaign that they have had it republished and have undertaken its distribution. Copies may be obtained by writing to the secretary of the National Service Board, Ottawa, or by applying to the National Service Director in any Province.

Speak Easily and Directly Into the Telephone

Even telephone men of long experience are surprised at the greater voice distinctness when speaking directly into the telephone. When you speak directly into the telephone, a lower tone of voice can be used, and your friend can hear easily.

Moreover, when you speak lower, the actual tone qualities of your voice are transmitted. When you speak loudly, you unconsciously adopt an unnatural tone of voice, with the result that much of the intimacy that should be associated with face-to-face conversation is lost. A close position to the telephone means easy talking and easy hearing.
